Approved Settlement Capacity vs Foreign Born Population (FBP) FY2012-2016

The two states that have approved over 6.5% of their foreign born populations during this span have each approved over 10%, with North Dakota approving 10.3% of their FBP, and South Dakota approving 10.56%. All foreign born data was taken from the 2013 American Community Survey.

Authorship: Lucas Grigri, Refugees in Vermont Project, NSF Award#1359895, January 4, 2017
Sources: WRAPS Data on Refugee Placements, Bureau of Population, Refugees and Migration 2012-2015, Migration Policy Institute, American Community Survey 2013 and 2010 US Census